Dear JCM friends, students, teachers and parents;

While everyone is hopefully enjoying a restful summer break I would like to share some news with you. After having served as Director of JCM-LA for the past four years and last year also as Director of JCM-CV I have decided to step down from that role and to take on a new obligation as Artistic Director. I am happy to announce that violist Gina Coletti will be taking over my old responsibilities and I am confident that the LA and CV branches will continue to thrive under her leadership. I myself am looking forward to focusing on some key artistic projects and on keeping up JCM's collaboration with other arts organizations, music schools, etc.

It has been a meaningful journey to see JCM become a place for passionate coaches, teachers, parents and students to make music together, and I would like to thank all of you for your effort and valuable contribution in the past. It is your continued presence and dedication that are the essence of what makes JCM and Los Angeles an inspiring musical community.

All best wishes—
Ming Tsu
Director, JCM-LA/CV
